Reflections upon the Works of God, as displayed in Nature.

BLESSINGS GRANTED US IN WINTER.

"The more we search into the works of nature during this season of the year, the greater cause shall we have to admire the wisdom of their Creator, and to rejoice in his goodness. During the budding spring, the ripening summer, & the luxuriant autumn, when nature, from the most simple, assumes her gayest & most splendid robes, hardened and collars in need must be that heart which does not throb with pleasure and beat with gratitude, for such choice gifts. But when the north wind blows, when a biting frost afflicts the face of the earth, when the fields, stripped of their fruits, and divested of all their charms, present one wild desolate view, then it is that men of the greatest sensibility will sometimes forget to be grateful. But is it true that the earth at this season is so utterly destitute of the blessings of heaven, that it possesses nothing that can excite the emotions of gratitude and of piety in the heart of man? Investigate with more attention the works of nature, and you will never find occasion to arraign the wisdom of God. Consider, how miserable you would be, if during this extreme cold, you had neither fire, bed, nor clothing to keep you warm. See with what goodness the Lord has foreseen your wants, and furnished you even in this season the most desirable of resources, with the necessities and comforts of life perhaps, at this moment, you feel the sweet influence of the fire; will you not magnify the Lord, who has provided fuel in such abundance that even the most indigent can procure what is necessary? you can lie down in a comfortable bed; a blessing which every evening ought to excite your gratitude to God; especially if you consider that there may be many, who through extreme want are not supplied with such a safeguard from the cold. You have clothing in such abundance, as enables you to brave the rigors of winter; if you do not consider this a blessing, think on the state of many of your fellow creatures, whose chilled limbs are but half covered with rags. If they had but the half of your clothing, how happy would they esteem themselves! & will you not acknowledge your happy lot? will you refuse to render homage to your beneficent Creator? but this is not all. Though you cannot penetrate through the veil which overshadows the creation, and though the great first cause of all things be hidden from your view, rest assured that nothing is created in vain, and that the Divine government is infinitely wise and beneficent. Winter belongs to the plan which he has laid, if this season did not exist, spring and summer would not have so many charms, the fertility of our land would be greatly diminished, commerce would fail in many provinces, and a part of the woods and forests would have been created to no purpose. Considered in this point of view, winter is without doubt very useful and supposing that these blessings were not so evident it would be sufficient to consider that winter is the work of the Creator as well as spring and autumn and that whatever proceeds from him must be good.

"Supreme Being, powerful and beneficent Creator, pardon us, if through ignorance we have found fault with the plan which thy wisdom has formed! pardon the ingratitude of which we have so often been guilty during this season! yes, even in winter thou grantest us more blessings than we deserve, and more than we can express. If to the present time, we have viewed them with an indifferant eye, if we understand their worth, grant that we may for at least for the time to come, be more attentive to, and more sensible of them, henceforward during this cold season, when we feel the sweet influence of the fire, when covered with warm garments or when we go to our couch to seek the refreshment of of warm and repose thou shalt receive our thanksgivings, O thou Preserver of our life for the blessings which thy liberal hand dispenses to us during the course of this season.

By the Edward, from Naples, we have received the following official document.

Translated for the Patriot, Copy of a letter from the Minister of Foreign Affairs of Naples, to the Consul of the United States, resident in that Kingdom.

The King has ordered that those ships or vessels, coming from that part of America where the yellow fever has been known to exist, shall be subject to a refusal on entering into his dominions, whenever they carry with them articles susceptible of contagion. Vessels laden with merchandise unsuspensible will only be admitted to discharge their cargoes after performing forty days quarantine at the Lazaretto.

The undersigned Councillor and Secretary for Foreign Affairs, trust that Mr. Alexander Hammett, Consul of the U. S. of America, will therefore unite in approving with the King the quarantine of twenty eight days, fixed by the ministers of the Health Department to the American ship the Leopard, captain Masters, from Gibraltar, as announced in the official communication of the Consul of the 5th instant, which vessel had she come direct from Boston, would have had the full period allotted to her.

With respect and esteem, I am, Sir, your obedient servant.
Signed
The Marquis Cirio

ALEXANDRIA.

THURSDAY, JANUARY 23.

FROM OUR CORRESPONDENT AT WASHINGTON.

January 22.

The proceedings I have witnessed for some days past have made me frequently regret the promise I made you; and you may consider it as a proof of my fidelity to my plighted word that I have continued to perform the task I undertook for you, under circumstances which disgust me as a moral being, and as an American fill me with the most painful forebodings. I am not one of those timid, jealous speculators who snuff abuse in every breeze; none of those political croakers who think the constitution outraged by every trivial deviation of the executive from the great limits prescribed to him by its strict letter and by the practical comments upon it of his more cautious predecessors, who, in the morning of our government were obliged to grope their way through the twilight, and move with scrupulous circumspection and care, till the full blaze of day enabled them to march forward with more bold liberality of conduct; but I own to you that I am alarmed at a danger of another kind and from another quarter; a danger which is the more to be feared, as it is least likely to be suspected, and which being generated by fraud on the untutored will of the people at large, will continue to carry with it the unruly prejudices of the multitude, and perhaps ultimately succeed in placing physical force in that station where wisdom, or as Lord Verulam, speaking of the law, beautifully expresses it, "Mind without passion" ought to preside. Do I go too far in this? If you think so, look to the proceedings in the supreme legislature of the nation—skin from them their essence, reflect upon it and be corrected.

A principle has, for the first time, I believe, since the birth of liberty in the modern world, been broached, & not only broached, but without blush or scruple avowed, and what is worse has been legislatively acted upon—namely, that the chosen legislators of this great nation are bound in every case where the will of the multitude is at variance with the judgments and consciences of them, the said legislators to forego all the lights which intellect, education, enquiry however laborious, and learning however profound, and all the moral and the divine laws afford them, and prostrating of their consciences & judgments before an undefinable thing called "the voice of the people" are bound to do that which they at the same time know to be wrong and mischievous, thereby in fact betraying the most sacred of trusts, pledging their words and souls for a false ood, and avowing themselves the most abject of slaves. They do not even assume that the will of the people which they thus resolve to obey, must be right—but, on the contrary they say, knowing it to be wrong, we will obey in utter disregard of our irresistible conviction.—Language to the full effect of this has been held, and maintained to be the law of Congress in the U. S.
I know that common domestic servants, and retired into temporary poverty, rather than undervalue themselves so much as to return the simple, common well understood answer of "my master (or my mistress) is not at home" because it was literally an untruth. What then shall be said of him who under the influence of a degrading ambition accepts an office in which he thinks it his duty to believe his own conscience at the command of despotic ignorance?

The only chance which the country has of escaping the pernicious effects of this unjustifiable perversion of the moral sense is that the objects of this gross, palpable, deceptive, insulting flattery, will themselves see the turpitude of it, and, rejecting it with scorn and disgust, will at the next election, purify the temple of their liberty by turning out the buyers and sellers.

In the mean time let us lament, for most lamentable it is, there should be in what we once flattered ourselves was the most august assembly of freemen upon earth, any one member capable of avowing as the principal law of his conduct, sentiments which the emasculated slaves of the grand Seign-ior's seraglio, though they might privately harbor in their bosoms, would endeavor to conceal, from policy and from pride.

Our representatives, it is to be feared, will now, under the influence of which I have been talking, put upon record this indelible monument of the shame of Congress, that they on solemn deliberation made a law under the conviction that it was a good and salutary one; and with that conviction confessedly unimpaired, but in trepidation at the distant rumbling thunder of the voice of they don't know who—uttered in the customary form of such abominations, clamore et ululatu—again, in the course of a few months repealed it.

According to this doctrine, the constitution is no more what the great fathers of America made it. By that instrument, a legislative, an executive and a judiciary composed the government—by this gross and barbarous interpolation, we are to be governed by a legislative, an executive, a judiciary, and a superintending council of demagogues, lords paramount over all. The Constitution is no more.

A letter from Washington, says—"An agent has been appointed to represent the black prince of Hayti, the claims of the American citizens, for spoils on their commerce, estimated at about 150,000 dollars."

We learn that Gen. Thomas, of Mil-lidgeville, Georgia, who advertised a Thousand Dollars Reward for the cure of a Cancer in his mouth, has since died of the complaint.

A letter from Port au Prince, says, "Gen. Sir Gregor McGregor arrived here a few days after General Bolivar sailed with the expedition for Main. It is reported that Sir Gregor McGregor is dissatisfied, and left the Patriot army."

Extract of a letter from Capt. Isaac Lincoln, of the schooner Adamant, to his owners in Boston, dated Dec. 23.

"While running down from Turks Island Passage (the owners suppose to be about Dec. 18,) fell in with and was boarded by a privateer scho. with no colors, would not give his name, where from, or where bound, but sent his Tigers on board, and after the most brutal treatment from them, took 3 bbls of rice, small stores of the cabin, clothes, &c., such as they liked, and then went forward, and plundered the seamen. This vessel, I am persuaded had not been at sea so long as I had from the U. States.
I think, and would hazard to say, she was from Baltimore. She was a scho. with fore top sail, and gal mainmast; her square sail, fore top sail and royal steering sail was new. It appeared to me her head sails had never been wet." [Is it not time, that such depredations on our lawful commerce should have an end?] Boston paper.

Loss of the British ship Hamilton, Capt.
Wamsley.

This ship was stranded in lat 36. long 68. She sailed Dec. 16, from Portland, bound to Grenada, with a load of lumber.
Experienced a heavy gale on the 19th of December from SW. Gave to on the 20th: at 6 the wind shifted to SE: at 7 the cabin and fore-cabin were nearly full of water. Every exertion was made to save the property and lives of the crew, and while getting the long boat ready, the ship upset, long boat bottom up, cut away the masts, when she immediately sighted: but the long boat was rendered useless by the injury it had received, and the small boat was lost. At 10 A M the quarter deck burst, and the cargo going out at both sides. At 4 the bows went off by the fore-cabin: at midnight the bottom and stern frame left the deck—the next day the wind was still very heavy. At 11 the main and lower decks were separately knocking against us on the quarter deck, from which we got away by the assistance of the captain's cot, of which we made a sail: thus almost naked and without water or provisions, lashed to the capstan with the cot canvass over to windward. The groans of the survivors were shocking beyond description. On the 24th the six survivors were happily released by the ship Victory, captain Abner, from London, in lat 39, long 61, (arrived here yesterday) who treated us in the kindest manner. Saved the capt. and 5 seamen. Lost overboard, Joseph Dodson, mate: James Abraham, cook, and John Carman, seaman. Died in the companion James Jermin, seaman.
Wm. Jones, boy, walked overboard in a state of insanity. (Capt. W. has a near relation in this city by the name of Tho's M. Wamsley, and hopes he may have the pleasure of seeing him.)—N. Y. pap.

Baltimore, Jan. 21.
A memorial of several ship owners, &c. in New-York is about being presented to congress, suggesting the propriety of totally prohibiting the admission of vessels and merchandize into our ports, bound from and bearing the product of territories from which our own vessels are excluded; they denominate this measure more prompt and effectual than the measure now contemplated by the committee of laying additional duties.

Another memorial recommends to congress the adoption of the following measures:
First, That the duties imposed by the tariff at the last session of congress, instead of being limited to two years, be made permanent.
Second, that the importation of cotton goods manufactured beyond the Cape of Good Hope be prohibited.

Third, That the revenue laws be revised and so modified as to prevent smuggling, and false invoices, and other frauds on the revenue.

Fourth, That a duty of ten per cent be laid on all auction sales of foreign goods, with the exception of the states of bankrupts and insolvents, persons decan-ed, and sheriff's and marshal's sales.

Fifth, That it be recommended to the officers of the army and navy, and to all our civil officers to be clothed in American fabrics, and that all public supplies purchased for the army and navy be of American manufacture.

The Weather.

Yesterday evening about ten o'clock we had a copious fall of rain, with warm southerly wind, accompanied with much thunder and lightning. The lightning was very frequent and vivid. Shortly afterwards the wind shifted to the northward, with squalls of snow. So sudden and severe became the frost as to arrest and fix the waters of the thunder shower upon our pavement and in the kennels before they had time to escape. This is the second instance which we have observed of thunder and lightning within the present month.

JAMES KENNEDY & SON,

BOOKSELLERS, KING STREET,
Have just received from LEE'S PATENT MEDICINE Store, No. 46 Maiden Lane, N. York.

A FRESH SUPPLY
Of the following genuine Medicines.
For the prevention and cure of Bilious and Malignant Fevers, is recommended.

Hahn's Anti-Bilious Pills.

THIS Medicine has been attended with a degree of success highly grateful to the inventor's feelings, in several parts of the West Indies, and the Southern & Middle States, particularly in N. York Philadelphia, Baltimore, Petersburg, Richmond, Norfolk, Edenton, Wilmington, Charleston, and Savannah. The testimony of a number of persons at each of the above places can be adduced, who have reason to believe, that a timely use of this salutary remedy has, under Providence, preserved their lives, when in the most alarming circumstances.

Facts of this conclusive nature speak more in favour of a medicine than columns of pompous eulogy, founded on mere assertion.

It is not, indeed, presumptuously proposed as an infallible cure, but the inventor has every possible reason that can result from extensive experience, for believing that a dose of these Pills, taken once in every two weeks, during the prevalence of our bilious fevers, will prove an infallible preventative; and further, that in the earlier stages of those diseases, their use will very generally succeed in restoring health, and frequently in cases esteemed desperate, and beyond the power of common remedies.

The operation of these pills is perfectly mild, so as to be used with safety by persons in every situation, and of every age.

They are excellently adapted to carry off superfluous bile & prevent its morbid secretions—to restore & amend the appetite—to produce a free perspiration and thereby prevent colds which is so often of fatal consequences. A dose never fails to remove a cold if taken on its first appearance—they are celebrated for removing habitual costiveness—sickness of the stomach and severe head-ache—and ought to be taken by all persons on a change of climate.

They have been found remarkably efficacious in preventing and curing disorders attendant on long voyages, and should be procured and carefully preserved for use by every seaman.

HAMILTON'S WORM DESTROYING LOZENGES.

Which have cured an immense number of persons of both sexes, of every age, and in every situation, of various dangerous complaints arising from worms, and from obstructions or looseness in their stomach and bowels.

This medicine bears no analogy whatever to others of similar titles so commonly complained of, as operating with violence; on the contrary, a particular excellence of this remedy is its being suited to every age and perfectly inoffensive; it contains nothing but what is constitutionally innocent, and is also mild in its operation, cannot injure the most delicate pregnant lady or the tenderest infant of a week old, should no worms exist in the body; but will, without pain or griping, cleanse the stomach and bowels, of whatever is foul or offensive, and thereby prevent the production of worms, and many fatal disorders. The lozenges are particularly efficacious in carrying off all gross humours and eruptions, feverish and bilious complaints, and are the safest and mildest purgative that can be used on any occasion.

DESCRIPTION OF WORMS.

And the symptoms by which they are known:

Worms which infest the human body, are chiefly of four kinds, viz.—The Terebrator, or large round worm; the Ascarides, or small man-worm; the Cucurbitina, or short, flat, white worm; and lastly, the Tænia, or tape-worm, so called from its resemblance to tape. This is often many yards long, and is full of joints. It is most hurtful and most difficult to remove.

Among the symptoms attending worms are—disagreeable breath, especially in the morning; bad and corrupted gums; itching in the nose, and about the seat; convulsions, epileptic fits, and sometimes privation of speech; starting and grinding of the teeth in sleep; irregular appetite, sometimes loathing food, and sometimes voracious; purging, with slimy & fetid stools; vomiting; large and hard belly; pains and sickness at the stomach; slow fever, with small and irregular pulse; a dry cough; excessive thirst; sometimes pale and unhealthy countenance, and sometimes the face coated and flushed.

Persons afflicted with any of the above symptoms, should have immediate recourse to Hamilton's Worm Destroying Lozenges, which have been constantly attended with success, in all complaints similar to those above described.

A dose of this medicine given occasionally during the warm season, will effectually prevent the vomiting and purging of chills—a dreadful disorder, which annually destroys the hands of the infant part of our citizens.

James Kennedy & Son, 46 Maiden Lane, N. York.

is a remedy known, and was restored to health and strength a great number, who in an advanced stage of this fatal complaint.
